Subject: one more hi-res photo

Just added one more image to my little wish list here (Stockton sulfur pile). If it's possible to get these tomorrow it would be a big help.

Thanks!

Hi Jared,

Bill may have mentioned that I'm hoping to snag high-res versions of a few of your photos. I've attached smaller versions here.

If you still have your Dropbox account, you should be able to drop the files in a shared folder called 'JB's photos for Bill' that we set up last year.

I'd love to get these in the next couple of days if possible. I also understand that you've got more (like the NGS series) that aren't publicly available on your Flickr site. Is there a way that I could access them? I'm sure there are many gems I haven't yet seen.

Bill
